We are sure that your holiday delectables always please, but just in case you're looking for pointers from the pros, stop by Woodinville's Willows Lodge for its "Boot Camp" series of holiday cooking classes. Each of the free hour-long demonstrations, in the inn's Fireside Cellars, focuses on a specific component of your feast: Dec. 1, holiday cocktails; Dec. 8, holiday appetizers, led by Bobby Moore, executive chef at the inn's Barking Frog restaurant; and Dec. 15, holiday desserts. Can't wait until December? Moore hosts a separate session on Thanksgiving side dishes on Nov. 10. Log on to www.AAAJourney.com for a peek at two fun holiday recipes from the Barking Frog's staff.

Chef Bobby Moore and his staff show off the finer points of holiday cooking at Willows Lodge.
